Attorney for Central Garden & Pet Company

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

CENTRAL GARDEN & PET COMPANY,

a Delaware Corporation

Plaintiff,

v.

CARLSON MORGAN, LLC,

a California Limited Liability Company,

Defendant.

Case No. 4:15-cv-00609-JSW

MOTION FOR ADMINISTRATIVE RELIEF TO CONTINUE THE INITIAL CASE
MANAGEMENT CONFERENCE AND RELATED
DATES; DECLARATION OF PAUL W. REIDL IN SUPPORT THEREOF [Local Rules 6-3, 7-11]
AND ORDER THEREON

Pursuant to Local Rules 6-3 and 7-11, Plaintiff hereby moves the Court to continue the Case Management Conference and the scheduled dates indefinitely. The Clerk has entered a default against Defendant. Plaintiff anticipates filing a motion for default judgment within the next thirty (30 days). Since Defendant has not defended the case, a Case Management Plan and Conference is unnecessary. For these reasons and as set forth in the following Declaration, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the motion be granted and the deadlines be continued indefinitely.

MOTION TO CONTINUE THE
INITIAL CASE MANAGEMENT
CONFERENCE AND RELATED
DATES

Respectfully submitted,

DECLARATION OF PAUL W. REIDL

1. I am an attorney at law duly admitted to practice before this Court. I represent the Plaintiff, Central Garden & Pet Company in this action. I have personal knowledge of the matters testified to herein.

2. The Defendant is a sole proprietorship in Modesto, California. Service was delayed because he was never available at his business address. Shortly after Defendant was served, its principal called the undersigned and said that he would not be defending the case because he could not afford counsel. Subsequent e-mails and telephone calls to Defendant's principal have not been returned.

3. The reason for continuing the dates is that Defendant is in default and Plaintiff intends to file a motion for default judgment. Under these circumstances, there is no need to prepare and hold a hearing on a Case Management Plan.

MOTION TO CONTINUE THE

4. Defendant has defaulted and has not returned telephone calls or e-mails. Since no one has appeared on Defendant's behalf, there is no counsel of record from whom Defendant can obtain a stipulation to a continuance.

5. The substantial harm and prejudice to going through the Case Management process is that it would be attorney and Court time spent engaging in a process that ultimately would be moot. The time would be better spent preparing the default motion and related papers.

6. There have been no previous modifications to the schedule in the case.

7. Ultimately, the requested time modification will have no effect on the schedule for the case because the case is likely to be decided on Plaintiff's motion for default judgment.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the state of California that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed this 28th day of April 2015 in Half Moon Bay, California.
